

SS OF APHS MORE THAN being super-Copies
aving agents
$50.00
for $50.00
ormation, call ay, Me.

ONS
! probably
and Sleep Falls forget to reof Household

efore Christ-pare change in uration of the
in the market.

gs; exceed-TERNS on ina magnificent
AND LAMPS,
all general sup-pied down very ities. Look ere, it COOK

the Turkey and and avert dis-
for the good wife
the Purloin Store, of HEATING

ill game.
Shot, shell and
erries a full line

leep not im-Farmers and non-purchasing their
HARDWARE
Delays are dan-

nces at home are during the MASON'S, where which will defy the place.

Norway, Me.

LE!

ren's

MENTS,

NCH,

y, Maine.

DE-

all. An ear-solicited.

SY.

con must be bind-

met such want-

last goods,
Jackets and Buses,
Newbury Boards,
Stetson
upland and Alp. Albums and for Cabinets,
rich and rare,
and don't forget,
the latest style,
on the city.

ides!

es, Vases,

pers,

chool Sta-

and

Stock

at way, Me.

ORWAY,
LS, weler
ay Block,

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1896.

NORWAY AND VICINITY.

Tom King has gone to Bethel.

The Tanner is buying the bark taken from the Granite Road farm.

Rev. W. W. Hooper, a former pastor at the Universalist church, is in town.

A. S. Bean recently shot two foxes in his field.

Diaries and Almanacs for 1897, at Noyes' Drug Store.

Dr. Tilton has sold the residence formerly occupied by him to C. N. Tabbs.

S. S. Smith's dog, which was lost some time since, has been found in Portland.

The Holiday goods for Noyes' Drug Store are on the road. Look out for the great annual display on Nov. 27.

Only think of it, a fine linen collar at 5 cents and ribbons at only 3 cents for sale at Brackett's Branch.

Dr. W. W. Hooper's "Piloteer" and Durgin's yearling mare are to trot a race New Year's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ames have gone to housekeeping in Geo. A. Ames' residence recently occupied by S. C. Stearns.

Just opened and placed on sale at Brackett's Branch 250 lbs. vests of fine quality at only 30 cents each, never sold for less than 25.

We understand that Ed. Jordan, who has worked several years for C. R. Cummings, has severed his connection with Mr. Cummings.

Now on sale at Brackett's Branch remnants of cotton flannel, best quality at only 10 cents per yard, worth 17 in the piece.

Evie Andrews, who has been at her sister's Mrs. Lucina Cummings' for the past few weeks, has returned to her home in Paris.

Mrs. Hannah Judkins, who has lived for a number of years upon the Shickley farm, is to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. John Devine.

Tuesday, Nov. 26th, is the great season on clocks at stores No. 1 and No. 3, Old Fellows Block, 200 clocks at low prices. Chas. W. Bowker, South Paris, and G. H. Robie, Bethel.

It is reported that Amos K. Towne and S. D. Andrews are shortly to resume operations in the pan-cake shop recently occupied by Horne & Andrews on Marsden street.

N. S. Merrill remembers the editor with some as fine apples as one would wish. They are of the Beauty of Kent, the American Beauty and a natural fruit variety.

E. M. Allen has moved from the tenement over J. C. Bennett & Co.'s meat market to the tenement on the first floor of the New Granite building. Nathan Hatch has moved into the tenement over the meat market.

Chas. W. Bowker and G. H. Robie of Bethel will display the best assortment of ladies' misses, and children's garments Tuesday, Nov. 26, over seen at the old store in stores No. 1 and 2 Old Fellows Block, South Paris.

Wonderful bargains are now being offered at Brackett's Branch. Just received and placed on sale 30 pieces of all wool came's hair suitings, serge, and novelty dress goods, full one and one-half yards wide, at the unheard of price of 62 1/2 cts. per yard, never sold for less than 81.

The County Commissioners have laid out a road around Elm Hill to the south of the present road coming from Watford and they pass round to Fross hill and the north. The distance of new road for the first hill is 142 rods and the second at rods.

Addison S. Bean gives us a treat of his fine winter peaches. They are very juicy and not eating the work out such peaches as will find a ready market, where the people know where to find them. Mr. Bean has a number of barrels of these peaches for sale.

Miss Libby, the photographer, has a new and special process of making large photographs to which she calls "visio." If you are to have pictures of yourself or friends you will save money by calling on Miss Libby on Dexter Street. She makes a special offer good Dec. 15. For Christmas week call at once. She will make one dozen cabinet and one portrait 11x14 for $5.50. See ad.

Every time Abbott goes up country he brings home something old or new. On his last trip he had the good fortune to be presented with a nice piece of venison by Mrs. Eliza Barker of Rumford, which he shared with his friends in this village. The deer was shot by W. B. Barker, a son of Mrs. Barker, and when dressed, weighed 136 pounds. Walter and his friends return thanks for this kindness.

Hon. Sumner W. Burnham, and wife of Lincoln, Nebraska, arrived in town Saturday, on a two weeks' visit to relatives and friends. His old friends will be pleased to know that he has a large stock farm a mile and a half from the city of Lincoln. Two years ago he was elected as a republican representative to the State legislature and was re-elected last year. He was elected Senator by nearly 2,000 majority.

A very interesting temperance meeting was held at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, with a full house. The church choir furnished the music. The pastor took the text, "The church choir furnish the music." The chairman made an appeal to all present to sustain these public meetings and the general temperance cause, and three signatures to the pledge, and three came forward and took the pledge. The music for the evening was furnished at the Opera House at Gorham, N. H., under the auspices of Antisocialism Engine Company, which is a village orchestra of this town. This is what the Mountaineer has to say about it. "No small amount of music of the highest quality was furnished by the orchestra of the Fair is Miss G."

J. H. Martin has just returned from Massachusetts where he has just buried his son, Charles H. The funeral was held at the home of the deceased.

The down mixed train No. 11, on the Grand Trunk, under charge of conductor John Hooper, due in this village at 3:30. The train was delayed by a snow storm, and the passengers were somewhat bruised, but none were seriously injured. The snowstorm caused a blockade of several hours. Wrecking trains from Portland and Gorham cleared the track.

A beautiful horse to be observed around the pond in this village Monday morning about seven o'clock.

We shall sell cloaks lower than, earlier in the season, than we have ever before.

Nov. 30, Chas. W. Bowker and G. H. Robie.

Emma Tuttle of Hebron attends school here.

Next meeting of Paris Grange Saturday, Nov. 27. Annual meeting for election of officers will be held at Grange house, 8 o'clock, on December 1st.

Oxford County Pomona Grange will hold their annual meeting for the election of officers at Grange hall, South Paris, on Saturday, Nov. 27, at 8 o'clock.

Clifford is teaching school in the King district.

PARTISAN DISTRICT. Edwin Stearns has sold his sheep to Frank Robbins.

Adeline Stearns has been visiting at South Paris for the past week.

Alonso Brown has bought a cow and calf of Ed. Everett.

William Gray has sold a cow to Frank Ryerson.

Col. Orison Ripley is sick at his brother's.

Frank Bennett is teaching school in Bethel.

Walter Gray is teaching in Woodstock, Maine.

The sleighing is nice in this vicinity as far as Paris Hill.

Charles Colby began work in the sled factory last week.

Mrs. Charles Colby is very much improved in health.

Mrs. Miriam Field is much better.

John Hayden and wife were at her home Sunday.

Norway and So. Paris Fire Protection.

Sixty-four Hydrants. New Hose, New Hose Houses, New Hose Carriages.

Works of the Norway Water Company. Pumping Station, Water Rates.

The works of the Norway Water Company are practically finished.

The first water for domestic purposes was turned on Sept. 27th and shortly after the fire service was completed.

In the village corporation there are thirty-eight hydrants, each capable of two streams, and nearly every house in the village is covered with water.

One or more streams from hydrants. On Main Street and at the Shoe Factory and the village water works.

The assessors and fire engineers have been much assisted by the water company.

The fire department has some 3000 feet of hose. These hose-houses are the old fire engine company and tub are the appliances in the village for fire protection.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1896.

NORWAY AND VICINITY.

Tom King has gone to Bethel.

The Tanner is buying the bark taken from the Granite Road farm.

Rev. W. W. Hooper, a former pastor at the Universalist church, is in town.

A. S. Bean recently shot two foxes in his field.

Diaries and Almanacs for 1897, at Noyes' Drug Store.

Dr. Tilton has sold the residence formerly occupied by him to C. N. Tabbs.

S. S. Smith's dog, which was lost some time since, has been found in Portland.

The Holiday goods for Noyes' Drug Store are on the road. Look out for the great annual display on Nov. 27.

Only think of it, a fine linen collar at 5 cents and ribbons at only 3 cents for sale at Brackett's Branch.

Dr. W. W. Hooper's "Piloteer" and Durgin's yearling mare are to trot a race New Year's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ames have gone to housekeeping in Geo. A. Ames' residence recently occupied by S. C. Stearns.

Just opened and placed on sale at Brackett's Branch 250 lbs. vests of fine quality at only 30 cents each, never sold for less than 25.

We understand that Ed. Jordan, who has worked several years for C. R. Cummings, has severed his connection with Mr. Cummings.

Now on sale at Brackett's Branch remnants of cotton flannel, best quality at only 10 cents per yard, worth 17 in the piece.

Evie Andrews, who has been at her sister's Mrs. Lucina Cummings' for the past few weeks, has returned to her home in Paris.

Mrs. Hannah Judkins, who has lived for a number of years upon the Shickley farm, is to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. John Devine.

Tuesday, Nov. 26th, is the great season on clocks at stores No. 1 and No. 3, Old Fellows Block, 200 clocks at low prices. Chas. W. Bowker, South Paris, and G. H. Robie, Bethel.

It is reported that Amos K. Towne and S. D. Andrews are shortly to resume operations in the pan-cake shop recently occupied by Horne & Andrews on Marsden street.

N. S. Merrill remembers the editor with some as fine apples as one would wish. They are of the Beauty of Kent, the American Beauty and a natural fruit variety.

E. M. Allen has moved from the tenement over J. C. Bennett & Co.'s meat market to the tenement on the first floor of the New Granite building. Nathan Hatch has moved into the tenement over the meat market.

Chas. W. Bowker and G. H. Robie of Bethel will display the best assortment of ladies' misses, and children's garments Tuesday, Nov. 26, over seen at the old store in stores No. 1 and 2 Old Fellows Block, South Paris.

Wonderful bargains are now being offered at Brackett's Branch. Just received and placed on sale 30 pieces of all wool came's hair suitings, serge, and novelty dress goods, full one and one-half yards wide, at the unheard of price of 62 1/2 cts. per yard, never sold for less than 81.

The County Commissioners have laid out a road around Elm Hill to the south of the present road coming from Watford and they pass round to Fross hill and the north. The distance of new road for the first hill is 142 rods and the second at rods.

Addison S. Bean gives us a treat of his fine winter peaches. They are very juicy and not eating the work out such peaches as will find a ready market, where the people know where to find them. Mr. Bean has a number of barrels of these peaches for sale.

Miss Libby, the photographer, has a new and special process of making large photographs to which she calls "visio." If you are to have pictures of yourself or friends you will save money by calling on Miss Libby on Dexter Street. She makes a special offer good Dec. 15. For Christmas week call at once. She will make one dozen cabinet and one portrait 11x14 for $5.50. See ad.

Every time Abbott goes up country he brings home something old or new. On his last trip he had the good fortune to be presented with a nice piece of venison by Mrs. Eliza Barker of Rumford, which he shared with his friends in this village. The deer was shot by W. B. Barker, a son of Mrs. Barker, and when dressed, weighed 136 pounds. Walter and his friends return thanks for this kindness.

Hon. Sumner W. Burnham, and wife of Lincoln, Nebraska, arrived in town Saturday, on a two weeks' visit to relatives and friends. His old friends will be pleased to know that he has a large stock farm a mile and a half from the city of Lincoln. Two years ago he was elected as a republican representative to the State legislature and was re-elected last year. He was elected Senator by nearly 2,000 majority.

A very interesting temperance meeting was held at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, with a full house. The church choir furnished the music. The pastor took the text, "The church choir furnish the music." The chairman made an appeal to all present to sustain these public meetings and the general temperance cause, and three signatures to the pledge, and three came forward and took the pledge. The music for the evening was furnished at the Opera House at Gorham, N. H., under the auspices of Antisocialism Engine Company, which is a village orchestra of this town. This is what the Mountaineer has to say about it. "No small amount of music of the highest quality was furnished by the orchestra of the Fair is Miss G."

J. H. Martin has just returned from Massachusetts where he has just buried his son, Charles H. The funeral was held at the home of the deceased.

The down mixed train No. 11, on the Grand Trunk, under charge of conductor John Hooper, due in this village at 3:30. The train was delayed by a snow storm, and the passengers were somewhat bruised, but none were seriously injured. The snowstorm caused a blockade of several hours. Wrecking trains from Portland and Gorham cleared the track.

A beautiful horse to be observed around the pond in this village Monday morning about seven o'clock.

We shall sell cloaks lower than, earlier in the season, than we have ever before.

Nov. 30, Chas. W. Bowker and G. H. Robie.

Emma Tuttle of Hebron attends school here.

Next meeting of Paris Grange Saturday, Nov. 27. Annual meeting for election of officers will be held at Grange house, 8 o'clock, on December 1st.

Oxford County Pomona Grange will hold their annual meeting for the election of officers at Grange hall, South Paris, on Saturday, Nov. 27, at 8 o'clock.

Clifford is teaching school in the King district.

PARTISAN DISTRICT. Edwin Stearns has sold his sheep to Frank Robbins.

Adeline Stearns has been visiting at South Paris for the past week.

Alonso Brown has bought a cow and calf of Ed. Everett.

William Gray has sold a cow to Frank Ryerson.

Col. Orison Ripley is sick at his brother's.

Frank Bennett is teaching school in Bethel.

Walter Gray is teaching in Woodstock, Maine.

The sleighing is nice in this vicinity as far as Paris Hill.

Charles Colby began work in the sled factory last week.

Mrs. Charles Colby is very much improved in health.

Mrs. Miriam Field is much better.

John Hayden and wife were at her home Sunday.

Norway and So. Paris Fire Protection.

Sixty-four Hydrants. New Hose, New Hose Houses, New Hose Carriages.

Works of the Norway Water Company. Pumping Station, Water Rates.

The works of the Norway Water Company are practically finished.

The first water for domestic purposes was turned on Sept. 27th and shortly after the fire service was completed.

In the village corporation there are thirty-eight hydrants, each capable of two streams, and nearly every house in the village is covered with water.

One or more streams from hydrants. On Main Street and at the Shoe Factory and the village water works.

The assessors and fire engineers have been much assisted by the water company.

The fire department has some 3000 feet of hose. These hose-houses are the old fire engine company and tub are the appliances in the village for fire protection.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four hydrants are located in the corporation and supplied with water by the Norway Water Company.

The village is well organized and the fire protection is equalled by none in any country village in the State.

South Paris Fire Protection.

This village has an excellent fire protection. Twenty-four

